WE ARE THE JOHANSON FAMILY

This is a story about our family, the Johanson family. Since the sudden death of our parents, Bryan, the eldest son, is the pillar of the family for his three brother, me (Chris), Eric and Louis. The story of us.

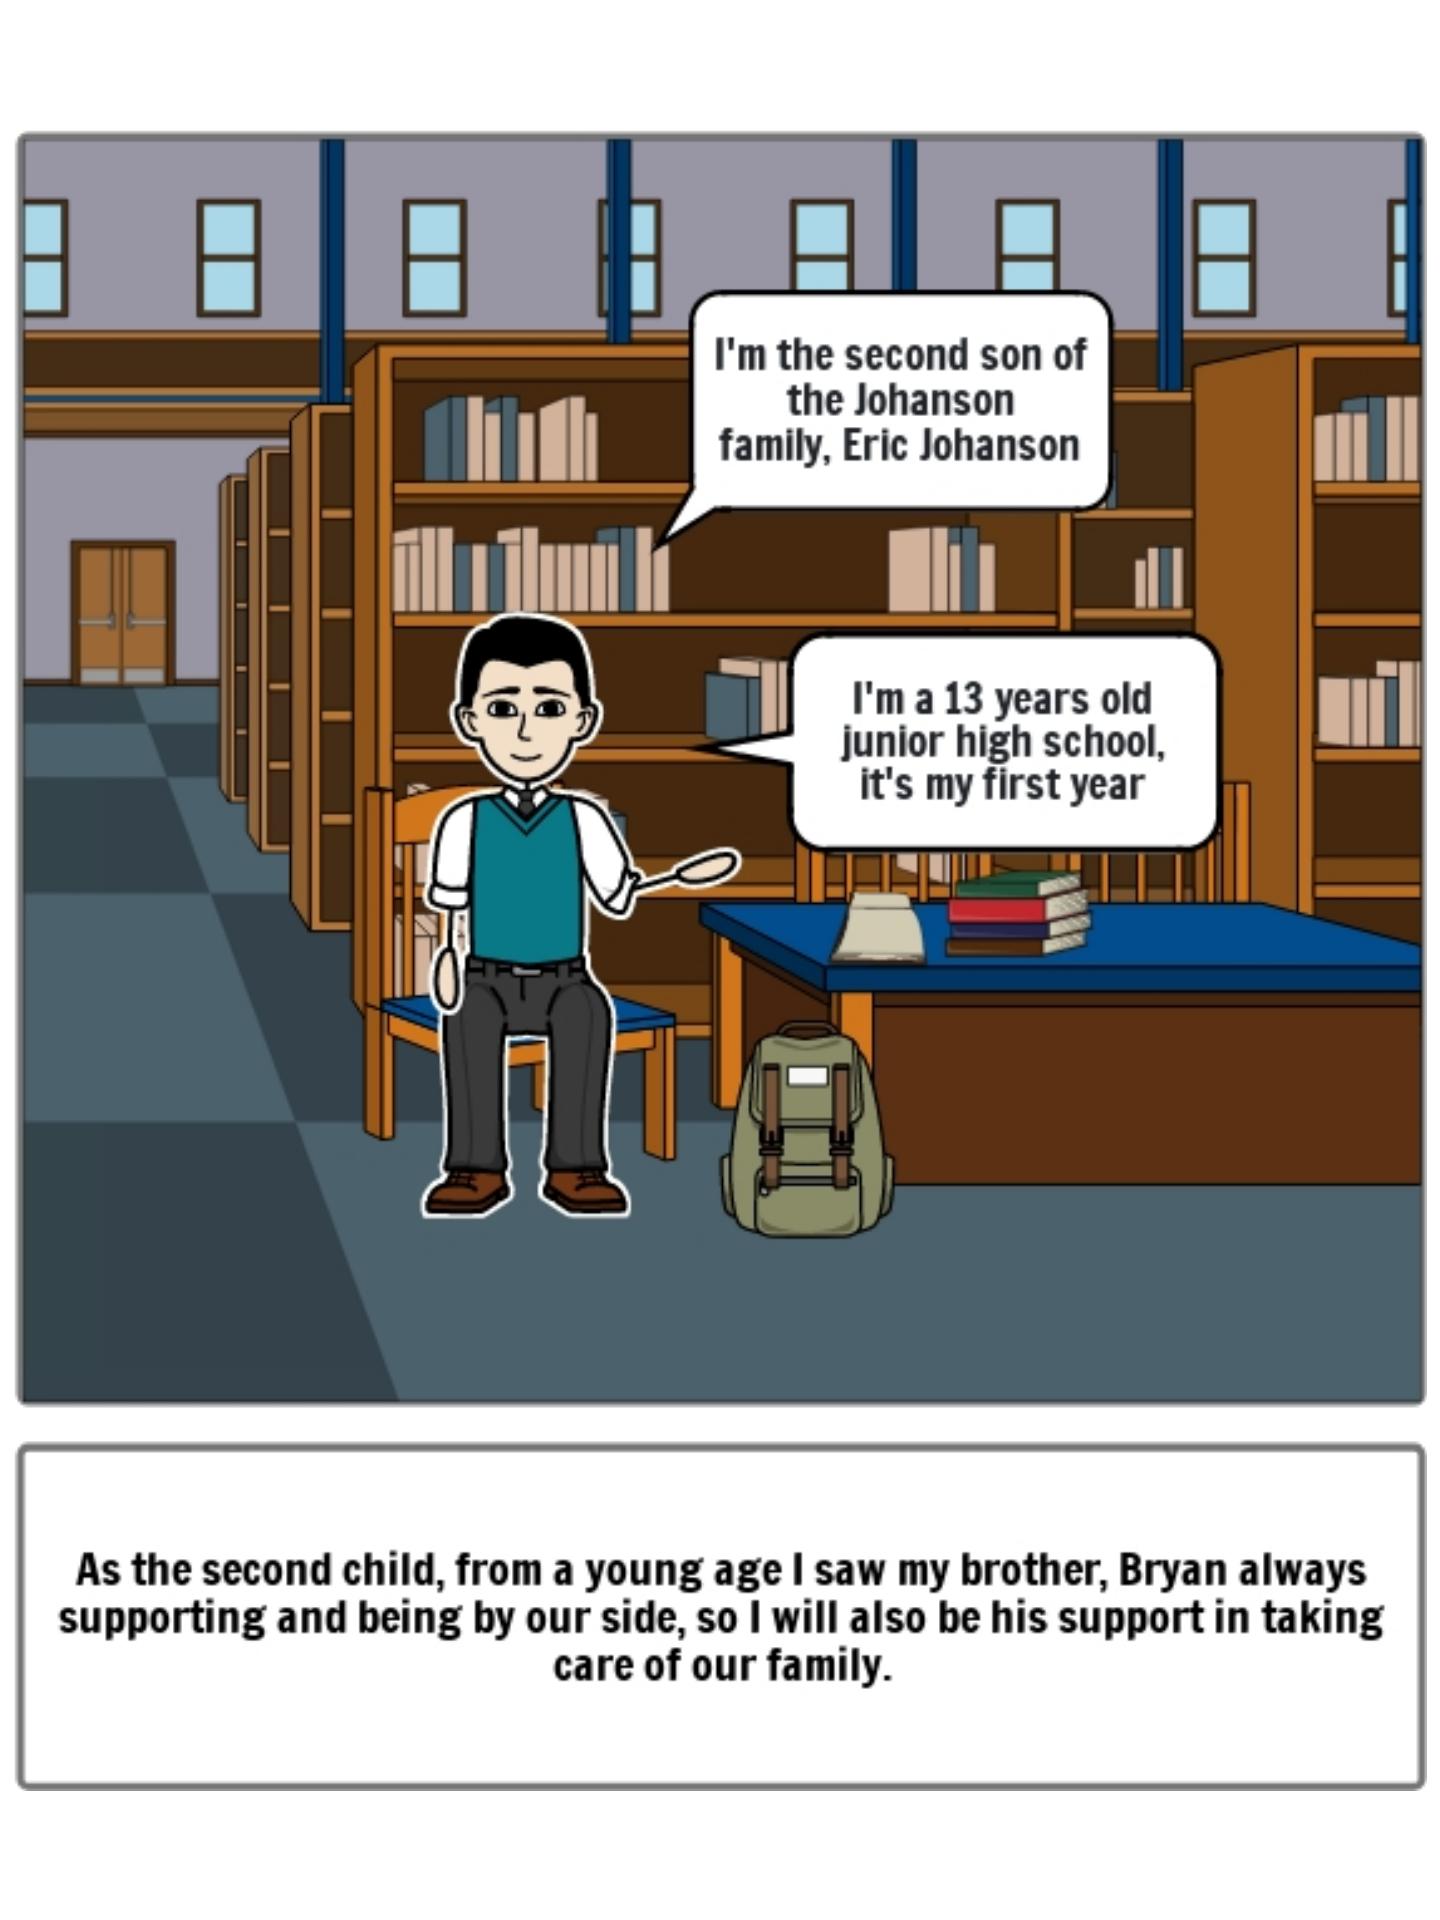

We were born and raised in this city, grew up together and always tried to be there for each other.

I'm the eldest son of the Johanson
family, Bryan
Johanson

And I'm a 23 years old high school teacher

I'm the eldest in this family, and of course I have the responsibility to provide for my younger brothers as well as being a father and mother figure for them.

I'm the second son of the Johanson
family, Eric Johanson

I'm a 13 years old
junior high school,
it's my first year

As the second child, from a young age I saw my brother, Bryan always supporting and being by our side, so I will also be his support in taking care of our family.

I'm the third son of the Johanson family,
Chris Johanson

I'm 12 years old and in my first year in junior high

Third child here!!, I always admire my family, even without parents, we sure can live a good family life, and of course for my sweet little brother, Louis I will do anything for him.

I'm the fourth son, the youngest of the Johanson family, Louis Johanson

It's my first grade in elementary school

Hi, Louis here, I just want to say that my brothers are the best brothers, they are the most important thing in my life, and for Chris I'm not a toddler anymore, I'm in elementary school now huh.

Since our parents died unexpectedly few years ago

Both of our parents passed away two years ago, in a plane crash that left us heartbroken for a long time, but with each other we were able to get back on our feet.

Living without our parents is lonely living with only four of us definitely makes us lonely, but we're used to that, the sadness of losing our parents will certainly continue to linger, but that doesn't discourage us from continuing to live for ourselves and our parents.

But, we used to that loneliness now

We are used to this loneliness, but we will continue to live with and be happy for our family.

It's Monday, everyone's busy, Bryan as the teacher will go in the morning, and the one who usually does housework is Eric, and I as the second child will sit quietly eating my breakfast.

But I...

No, you're not, you take Louis and hurry to school Chris

Me too, i'll help too, brother!

I also want to help with the housework sometimes, but my eldest brother Bryan always thinks I can't do it well, and he trusts Eric more.

Brother, I'm already in elementary school

Well, I will take you to school, let's go little Louis!

Luckily Bryan let me take care of Louis, my favorite little brother,
I always like to take him to school.

Did you see the festival poster earlier, it reminded me of our family habits back in the day.

Yup, I saw it earlier, want to see it? We can go, but don't tell anyone, because Bryan must be too busy to go, and won't give permission if it's just the two of us, how about it, Louis?

While waiting for school bus, Louis remembered something because he saw a festival poster on the road, just like their family used to visit every year-end.

Are we sure we want to go to the festival without telling Bryan, I'm a little scared without Bryan.

Don't be silly, little Louis, Bryan isn't your only elder brother, you know?

On the way to school, Louis was still hesitant to go just alone with Chris without Bryan knowing, even though he really wanted to go to the festival.

But we would have to go by train to get to the festival

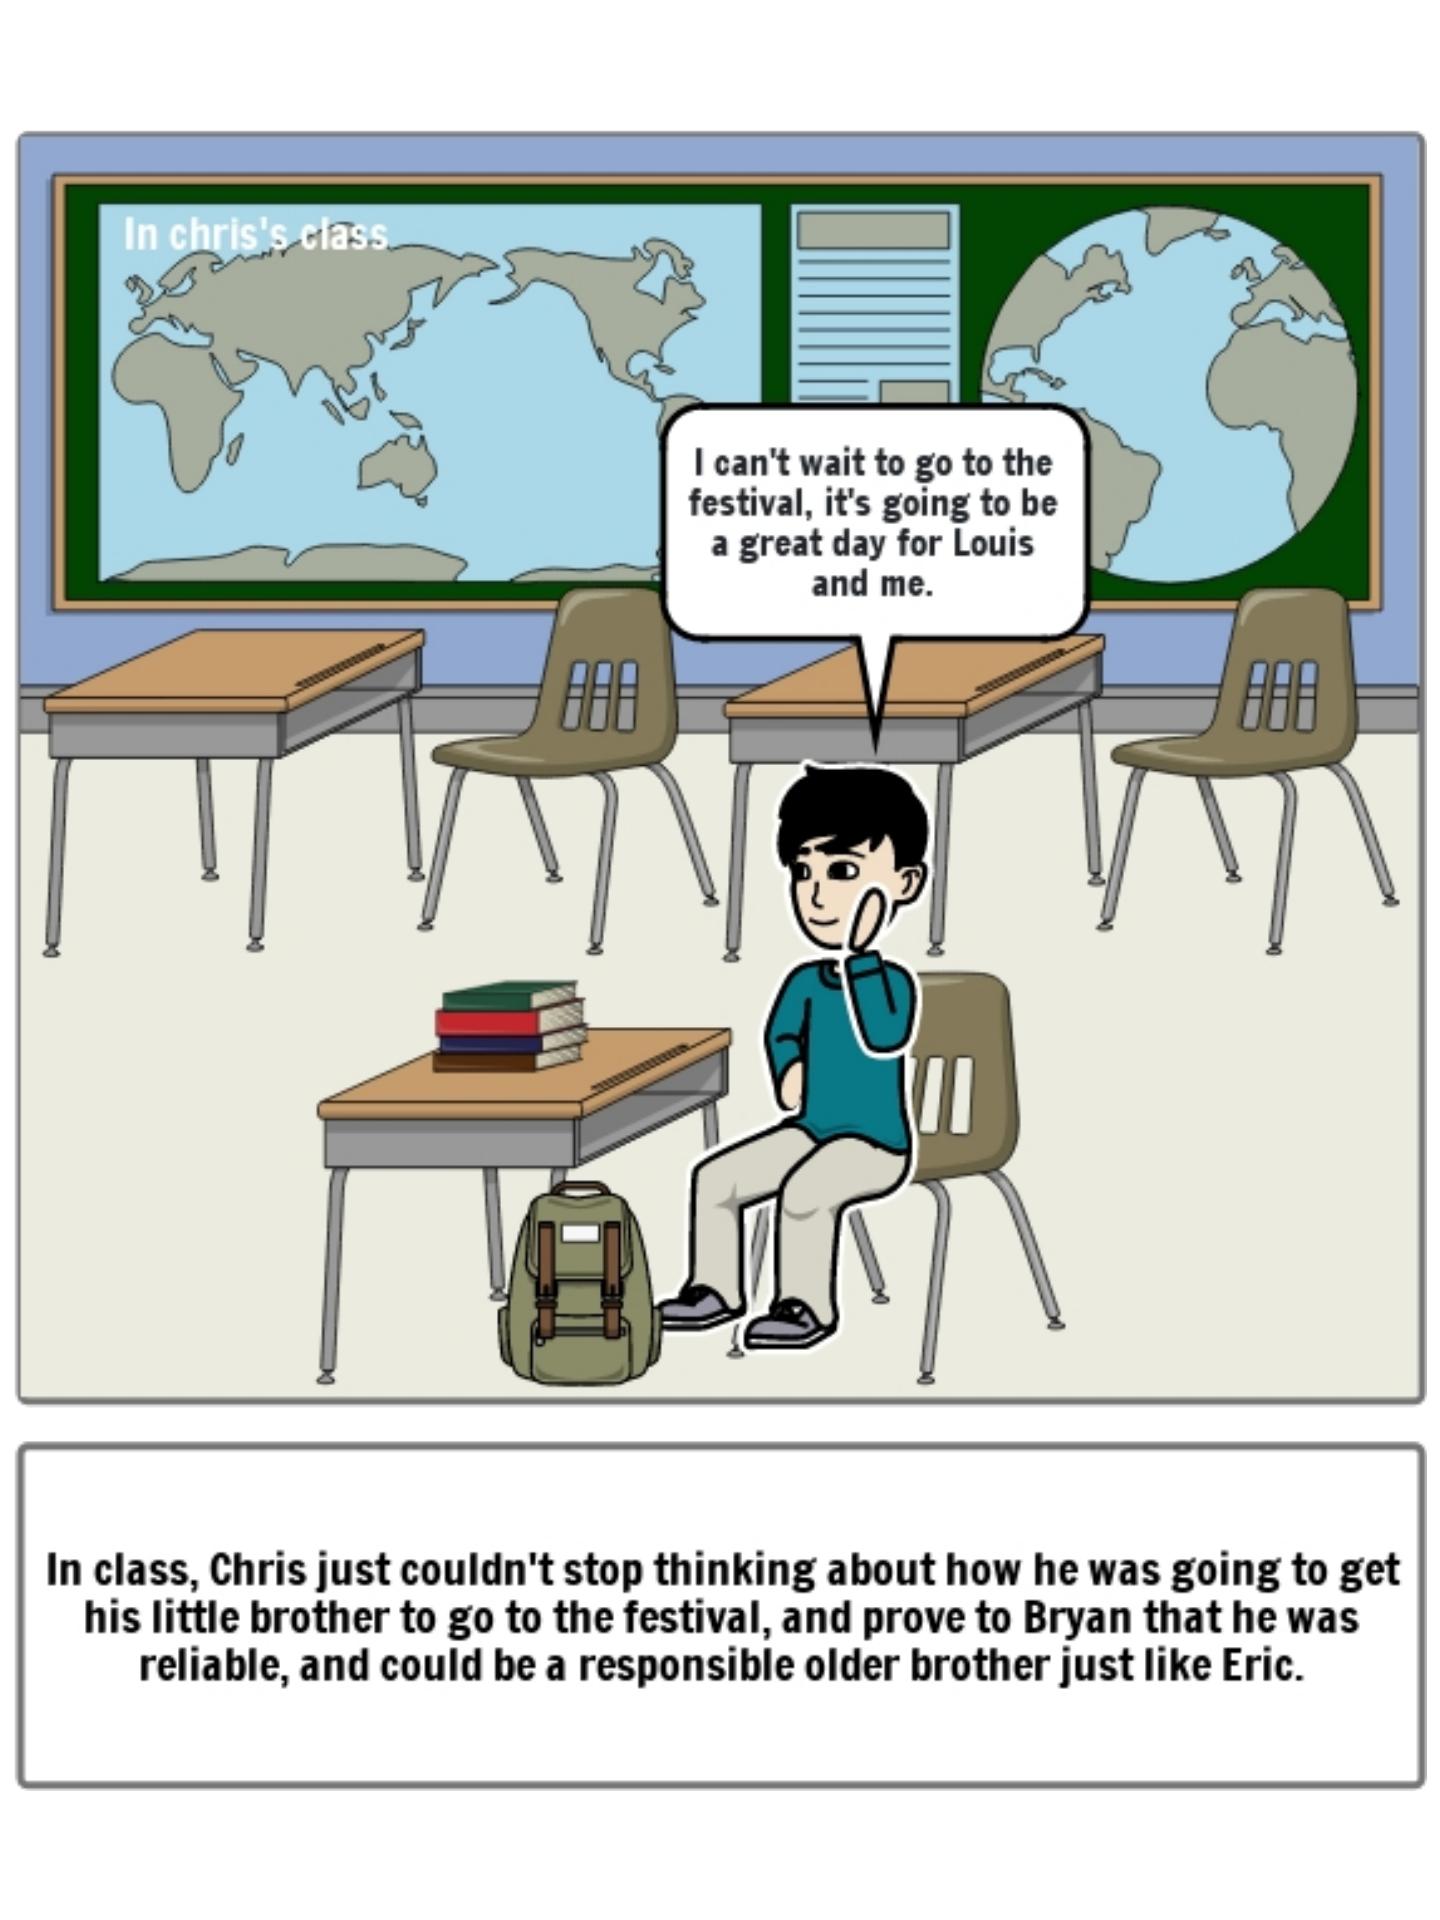

What do you think I am? i'm in high school! travelling by train is piece of cake for me!

In the end, they agreed to go to the festival later, without telling Bryan and Eric.

Until the school bus arrived, Chris just couldn't resist because his little brother was too cute for his age, of course he would do anything for his little brother.

In chris's class.

I can't wait to go to the festival, it's going to be a great day for Louis and me.

In class, Chris just couldn't stop thinking about how he was going to get his little brother to go to the festival, and prove to Bryan that he was reliable, and could be a responsible older brother just like Eric.

At home after school

If I take Louis to see the festival by myself..

I'm sure he would react like this "you're an amazing brother" and he will change his opinion about me

After school, Chris is just ready to take Louis out to the festival, the excitement is getting bigger and bigger.

ay ay captain, so excited for this !

Okay Louis, let's get ready first, and leave immediately before bryan gets home.

Their plans were well-established and ready to go for the festival.

Yess, Let's gooo

Are you ready for the festival, Louis!!

they set off happily to the train station.

Along the way they just sit still and wait for the train to arrive at their destination, until the train door opens, a sign that they have arrived at their destination.

At the station, Louis can't wait to get to his dream festival, Chris has never seen Louis like before, it actually makes him feel like a good brother and can be able to please his younger brother.

At the festival..

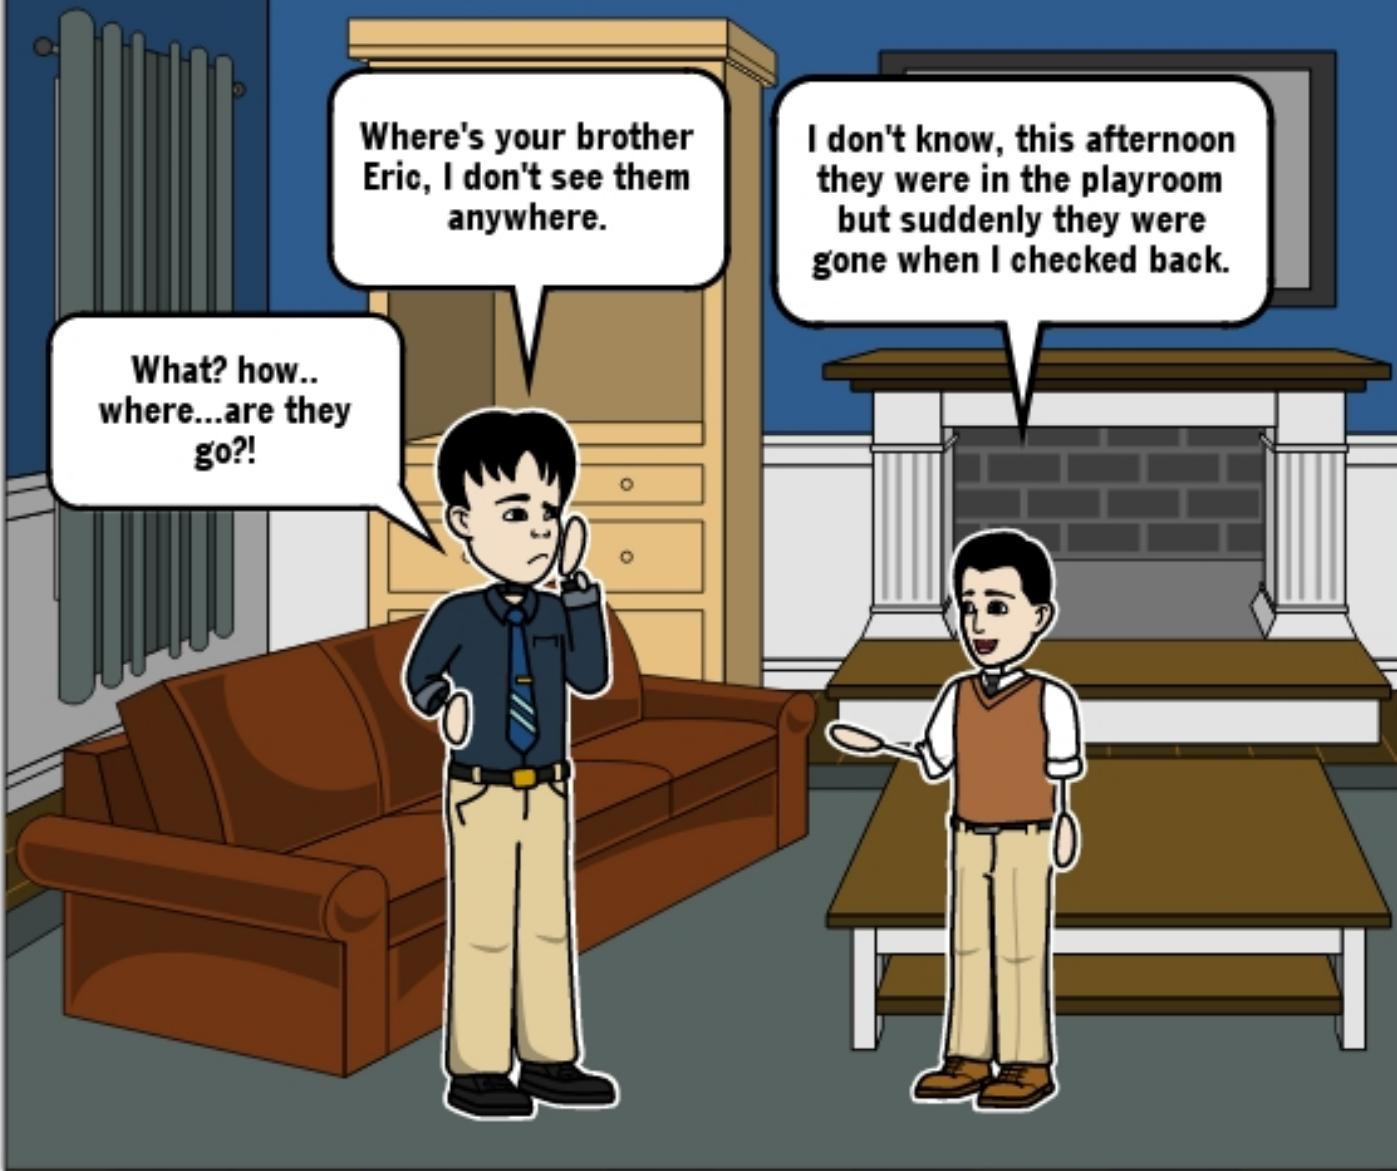

Let's hang out, and ride
the Ferris wheel before going home

Yeyy, okayy brother!

They had fun without knowing that their older brothers Bryan and Eric began to realize they weren't home from the afternoon and made them panic to find where their brother had gone.

Meanwhile in the other side..

Bryan and Eric began to realize that their two younger siblings were missing, even though they had always asked Bryan's permission before going out or playing.

Just the two of them? It's too dangerous for the festival in the other city, it must be Chris who invited Louis, we have to find them.

When they were in the playroom, I could hear them talking about the festival, maybe they went to see the festival together.

Let's go find them, and hope they are okay there

Bryan couldn't help but be worried, how his two little brothers were in another city without enough money to watch the festival.

Why does he always do such kind of things? if he wanted to go, he should've told me

I think he couldn't tell you, you are too busy right now, he didn't want to trouble you more..

He cares about you and Louis in his own way, Bryan

On the way to the festival to pick up their brother, Eric opens Bryan's eyes about Chris who just wants to be a good brother to him and Louis, even though Chris' methods are different.

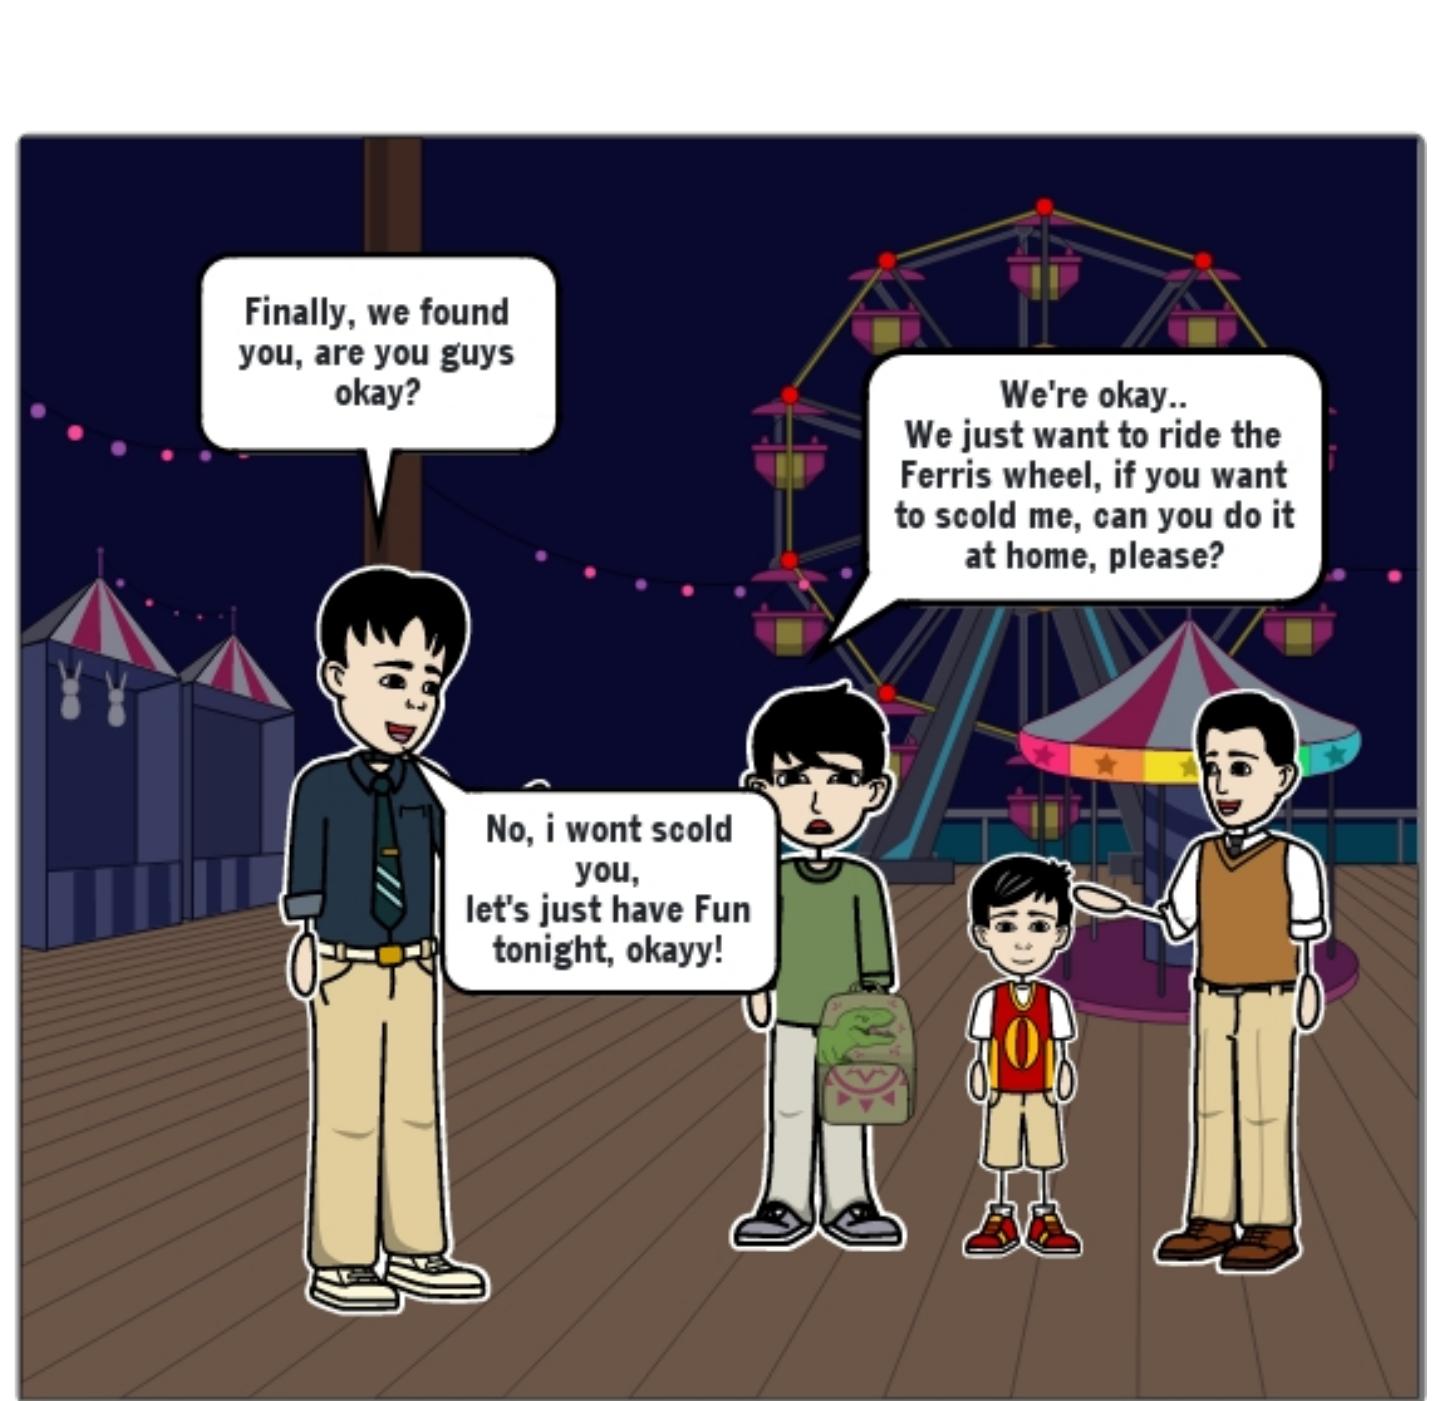

Is that our brother?
thank God they're fine

I think so, I'll call them

Chris, Louis,
hey over here!

As the night wore on, Bryan and Eric were lucky to find them in front of the Ferris wheel.

Finally, we found you, are you guys okay?

We're okay..
We just want to ride the Ferris wheel, if you want to scold me, can you do it at home, please?

No, i wont scold you,
let's just have Fun tonight, okayy!

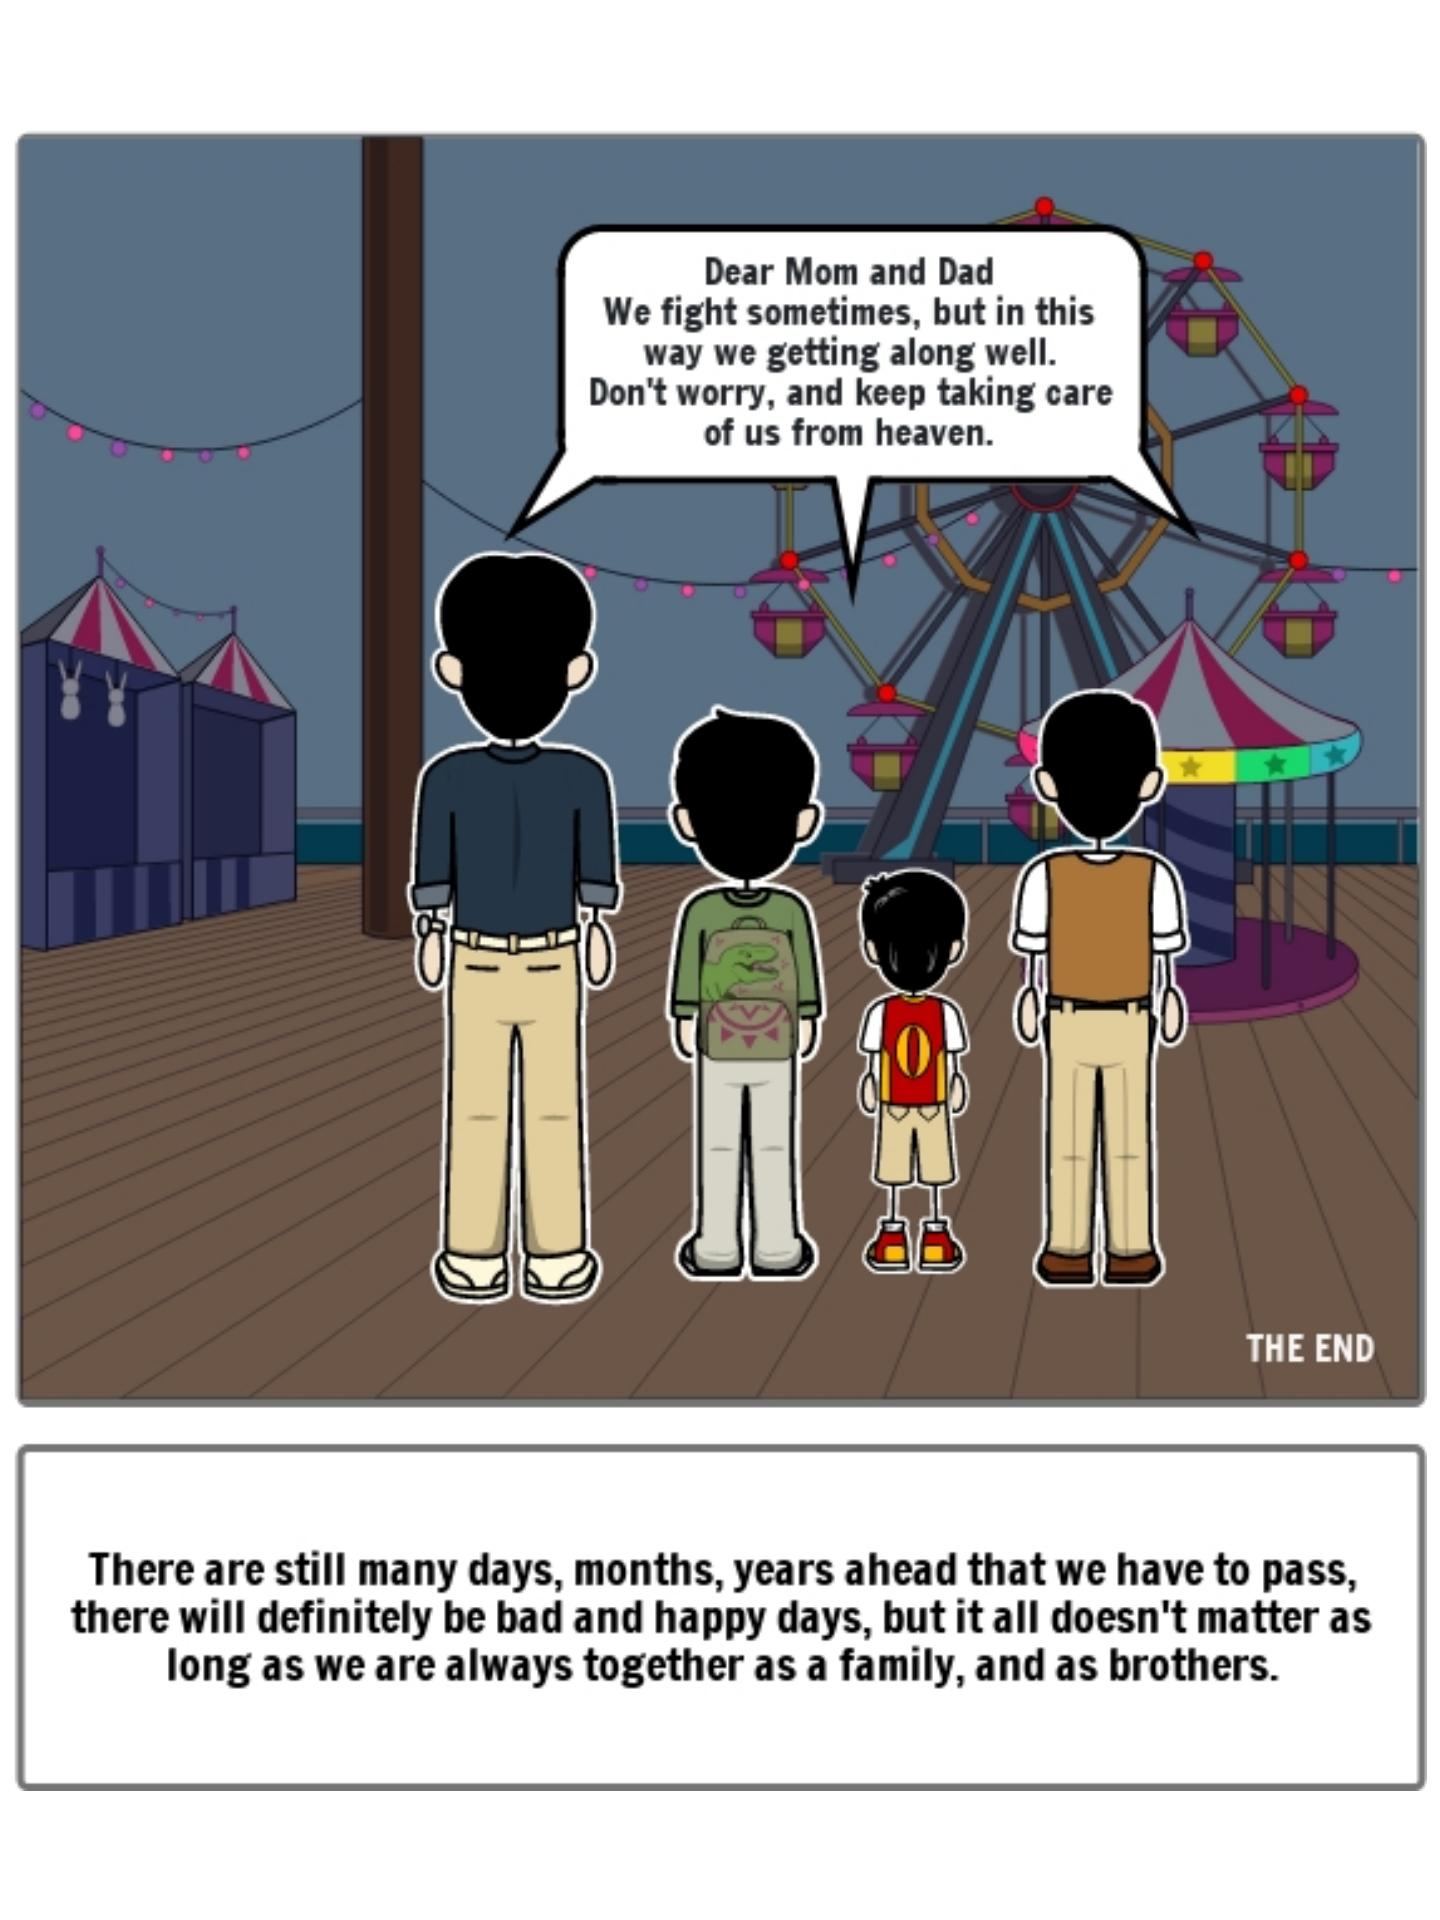

In the end we wandered around the festival and rode the Ferris wheel before heading home, just like our family used to do every year.

We will comeback here together next year, and also the next one, every year

No matter what's happen, we are brothers, WE ARE FAMILY, we are going to live supporting each other

With the four of us always supporting each other, it's more than enough to continue living this life happily.

Dear Mom and Dad
We fight sometimes, but in this way we getting along well.
Don't worry, and keep taking care of us from heaven.

THE END

There are still many days, months, years ahead that we have to pass, there will definitely be bad and happy days, but it all doesn't matter as long as we are always together as a family, and as brothers.
